Ousman,

RE: PANEL DISCUSSION ON WEDNESDAY 17TH SEPTEMBER, 2025 BETWEEN 6.00PM AND 7.30PM (EAT)

I am writing to invite you to a panel discussion organised by the Lukenya University as we prepare for the 1st Anniversary of the Pan African Institute scheduled for Sunday the 9th day of November, 2025.

The subject of the discussion will be "Investigating the role of education in liberation by strengthening Pan-African consciousness through research, curriculum reform, and cultural exchange".

Please confirm your participation. If you do, then Senator Sylvia Kasanga will include you in a dedicated WhatsApp Group.

Kindly respond pronto and confirm your WhatsApp numbers by return.

Thank you.

Yours

Born and raised in The Gambia, Ousman Touray is a passionate Pan-Africanist, dynamic orator, and development thinker whose life's work is a testament to his unshakeable faith in the continent's potential. With a solid grounding in development and policy studies, he has embarked on a mission to dismantle outdated narratives and champion a vision of African development that is rooted in unity, self-reliance, and ownership. At the heart of Ousman's mission is the continent's greatest asset: its youth. He is a powerful voice for unlocking the creativity, leadership, and purpose dormant within the next generation. From high-level summits to community town halls, his electrifying presence has inspired diverse audiences across Africa and the globe to see themselves not as spectators, but as the primary architects of a new era.

Tireless in his advocacy, Ousman's message is both a challenge and a call to action: "Africa's future will not be imported—it will be built from within." He continues to lead with profound vision and deep conviction, empowering young Africans to confidently take the driver's seat in shaping the prosperous, unified Africa we all envision.
