RE: PANEL DISCUSSION ON WEDNESDAY 17TH SEPTEMBER, 2025 BETWEEN 6.00PM AND 7.30PM (EAT)

I am writing to invite you to a panel discussion organised by the Lukenya University as we prepare for the 1st Anniversary of the Pan African Institute scheduled for Sunday the 9th day of November, 2025.

The subject of the discussion will be "Investigating the role of education in liberation by strengthening Pan-African consciousness through research, curriculum reform, and cultural exchange".

Please confirm your participation. If you do, then Senator Sylvia Kasanga will include you in a dedicated WhatsApp Group.

Kindly respond pronto and confirm your WhatsApp numbers by return.

Thank you.

Yours

Sincerely
FOR: PAN AFRICAN INSTITUTE

Nancy Linda Kalembe is a trailblazing Ugandan entrepreneur, public figure, and politician who made history as the sole female candidate in Uganda's 2021 presidential election. With a diverse background spanning media, banking, and enterprise, she brings a unique, multi-sectoral perspective to national leadership.

As the founder of the cleaning company Spring Clean and CEO of the agri-business Mbalimbali Ltd., Kalembe

Nancy Kalembe has a proven track record in job creation and business development. Her political platform is grounded in this practical experience, focusing on pragmatic solutions for poverty alleviation, unemployment, and the strengthening of healthcare and infrastructure.

A former news anchor and a contestant on The Apprentice Africa, Kalembe is a skilled communicator with a resilient spirit. She continues to be a prominent voice in Ugandan politics, actively advocating for inclusive governance and has announced her intention to run for president again in 2026.
